

PETER LEHMANN

Peter Lehmann Wines was almost born out of necessity; Peter was working at Saltram in 1977 when there was a surplus of grapes; rather than let the growers down Peter started a side project making wine out of the extra grapes. This venture evolved over time to become Peter Lehmann Wines. Peter was a true gentleman and extremely community minded in the wine industry; the by word for him is "my word is my bond". Today his legacy lives on in the wines that are produced to this day. We are fortunate to have Malcolm Stopp, Brand Ambassador for Peter Lehmann, to present a range of wines and to elaborate on the history of Peter Lehmann Wines.

In the event that you are unable to make the tasting, the tasting ticket can be exchanged for another tasting ticket of the same value, the value can be put towards another ticket or a full refund can be given, if we are notified 7 days prior to the date of the event. If notified after this date, we will try to sell your ticket. If successful, a full refund or exchange will be given. Tickets exchanged for other events will not be automatic; this is availability dependent. It's very rare for us to have to cancel an event; if we do, a full refund will be given. Glengarry encourages responsible drinking and we are unable to serve alcohol to anyone who appears to be intoxicated. At the conclusion of the event our staff can organise taxis or dial a driver for you. Customers with food allergies should advise us of these when booking. Some events have only a small selection of accompanying food. Everything possible will be done to cater for your requirements, however this is not always possible within the ticket price.
